Landing pages special offer

For all conferences and events we are now able to offer dedicated landing pages for organisers.

On these pages we can collate anything and everything to do with the conference, all in one place, and all updateable as often as required. We will also be able to create a memorable website address for your landing page, along the lines of www.venuebirtingham.com/yourconferencename

We have an example of a landing page already created at www.venuebirtingham.com/innerworlds

The screenshot shows the venuebirtingham website interface. At the top, there is a blue navigation bar with contact information (0121 415 8400, enquiries@venuebirtingham.com) and links (About us, Contact us, FAQs, Blog, Testimonials). The main header features the venuebirtingham logo and the University of Birmingham logo. Below the header is a navigation menu with links for home, meet, celebrate, sleep, eat, and about us, along with a site search box. The main content area displays the title 'Inner Worlds, Outer Worlds' and a graphic with two overlapping speech bubbles, one labeled 'inner worlds' and the other 'outer worlds'. To the right of the graphic is the text: 'developing personal & institutional narratives in support of LGBTQ students'. Below this is a promotional box for booking a bed and breakfast online, featuring a 'BOOK ONLINE NOW' button and a 'book now' button. At the bottom, there is text about the University of Birmingham event on Thursday 10 November 2011, chaired by Professor Terry Threadgold, Pro Vice-Chancellor for Staff and Diversity, Cardiff University. A note mentions the extension of the Public Sector Equality Duty from 6 April 2011, requiring public bodies to accommodate the needs of LGBTQ service-users.
